Video Contest: Dream Out Loud

Have you ever had a dream that you gave up on? Do you feel as though your life hasn’t turned out how you pictured it when you were younger?

We believe that in order to follow your dreams, you must set realistic goals and then develop a plan towards achieving them. That is why we are inviting you to enter the Major Exploration Program Dream Out Loud Video Contest. The top five videos will be posted on the Major Exploration Program Facebook page and the Dream Share Project Facebook page. The two videos that receive the most “Likes” by viewers will be in position to win the grand prize.

Due Date: Friday, March 29th 2013. Your video must be submitted by e-mail: Michael.Bell2@ucf.edu

Rules/Expectations:

1. The content of your video must be UCF Creed appropriate.
2. Your video cannot exceed 2 minutes in length.
3. You must clearly say what your dream is after you introduce yourself.
4. You must show or tell your viewers a step-by-step plan of action that you will be using in order to achieve your dream.
5. Be creative.
6. The top two video contestants will be invited on stage during the Dream Out Loud Workshop with our guest speakers and founders of the Dream Share Project, Chip Hiden and Alexis Irvin. Chip and Alexis will reveal which student won, and that student will receive a prize.

Background: Alexis and Chip travel around the country and interview successful people who discuss how they have accomplished their dreams and what it took them to get there. Like the Dream Share Project, we aim to inspire people not to give up on their dreams. For more information, check out their website at http://thedreamshareproject.com/ or watch them on any social media site by typing “The Dream Share Project” into the search bar.
